Policies, Practices & Guidelines

Policy, Practice or Guideline: Religious School - Attendance

Source: Religious School

Date Adopted: 05/1962

Dates Revised: 02/2023

- I. Introduction: Educators agree that regular class attendance is considered to be one of the most important elements of any successful education program. Further, participation in Shabbat Services will provide the students with the opportunity to reinforce Hebrew prayer skills in preparation for their own Bar/Bat Mitzvah service. At Keneseth Israel we treasure every child and want to provide them with the best Jewish education possible.
- II. Policy Statement: It is the policy of the Keneseth Israel Religious School that students will attend at least 85% of class time. This is considered optimum for retention of new information and the successful development of skills.
- III. History:
- IV. Definitions:
- V. Procedure: If attendance becomes an issue, the Director of Education will discuss, with the parents, a plan for additional support to ensure students are meeting educational goals.
