Policy, Practice or Guideline: Religious School Closing

Source: Religious School

Date Adopted: 06/1984

Dates Revised: 02/2023

- I. Introduction: The Mission of the Religious School is to foster the love of Judaism and instill pride of our diverse heritage into our children. It is incumbent upon the leadership of the Temple to assure that our children arrive at the Temple and return to their homes safely.
- II. Policy Statement: It is the policy of KI that the Religious School will close and classes may be canceled in the event inclement weather occurs, is predicted, or there are extenuating circumstances that would affect the safety of students and staff.
- III. History:
- IV. Definitions:
- V. Procedure:
 - a. The Rabbi, Executive Director, Religious School Director and Chair of the Religious School will collaboratively determine if classes are to be cancelled.
 - b. Religious School will close or cancel in inclement weather in accordance with the early dismissal or closing of the Parkland School District.
 - c. Closings will be announced electronically and a message will be made available through the KI answering service.
